Juror:
Tracey
Abel

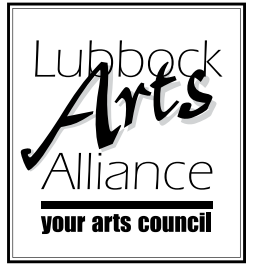

Tracey Abel has taught art for Corsicana Independent School District for 23 years and is an adjunct instructor for both Navarro College and Texas A&M University-Commerce. She is the Fine Arts Coordinator for Corsicana ISD and is very involved with community arts through her membership on the board of the Navarro Council of the Arts. Mrs. Abel has shown and sold her artworks in both Corsicana and various Dallas galleries. Her preferred mediums are acrylics, watercolor, photography and ceramics. Mrs. Abel has been commissioned by various businesses, churches, and the college in Navarro County for murals and does set design for the theatre. Mrs. Abel was a juror for the "Western Artists of America" when it was hosted by the Pearce Museum in January of 2011. Her passion for art and teaching are exhausting and she works tirelessly to spread her enthusiasm for the arts to others. She was named "Distinguished Secondary Educator of the Year" by C.I.S.D. in 2010 and received the prestigious Golden Apple Award for this honor. Mrs. Abel has a both a B.F.A. in Advertising Design and an All-Level teacher certification in Art education from Stephen F. Austin State University and a M.L.A. in Art from Dallas Baptist University. She is a member of the Texas Art Educators Association, the National Art Educators Association, and the Texas Visual Artists Association.
