34th Annual Lubbock Arts Festival - Young Writer's Competition Information & Guidelines

The Lubbock Arts Festival will be held April 13-15, 2012 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center in Lubbock, Texas. In an effort to promote the literary arts, the Lubbock Arts Festival will once again have a Young Writer's Competition.

The Lubbock Arts Festival Young Writer's competition is designed to: 1.) encourage student's interest in written expression as a hobby or career choice, 2.) to provide students the opportunity to practice writing skills, 3.) to recognize students who demonstrate skill in poetry and prose writing, and 4.) help students prepare for the TAKS test.

Eligibility: The competition is open to any student, grades K-12, in Lubbock and the surrounding area (this includes public school students, private school students, and home schooled students).

Entries: Original entries of prose and poetry will be accepted from students in grades K-1, 2-3, 4-5, 6-8, and 9-12. All entries should be written in English and must be the original work of the student. Entries should be hand written or produced by the student on a computer. Entries should be no longer than one page (front only). All entries must be accompanied by an entry form. The student's name, TITLE OF WORK, SCHOOL NAME and GRADE LEVEL should be placed in the upper right hand corner of each entry.

Teachers may enter up to 5 entries per class and only one entry per person will be accepted.

Theme: "How Jelly and Bean Got Together" Jellybeans? Butterfingers? Gobstoppers? There are many different types of candy with very unique names. Where do these names come from? Write a creative story on how your favorite candy got its strange name.

All entries should be reflective of this theme. Entries that do not reflect the theme will not be judged.

Judging: Entries will be read and evaluated on the basis of originality, knowledge of subject matter, effective use of language, clarity of thought, spelling, grammar, punctuation, and recognition of standard forms of poetry and prose. Entries will not be judged if they are not relevant to the theme.

Awards: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place awards will be given in each category.

Deadline: All entries and an accompanying entry APPLICATION FORM must be received by the Lubbock Arts Alliance by March 1, 2012. Entries must be mailed to the Lubbock Arts Alliance, P.O. Box 5092, Lubbock, Texas 79408, ATTN: Emily Arellano or hand delivered to the Lubbock Arts Alliance Offices, 1717 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas. ONLY WINNING ENTRIES WILL BE RETURNED (WITH THEIR AWARD RIBBONS).
